EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS 2012 PRAYER: Lord Jesus, You were sent by the Father to gather together those who are scattered. You came among us, doing good and bringing healing, announcing the Word of salvation and giving the Bread which lasts forever. Be our companion on life's pilgrim way.

May the Holy Spirit inflame our hearts, enliven our hope and open our minds, so that together with our sisters and brothers in faith we may recognise you in the Scriptures and in the breaking of bread. May your Holy Spirit transform us into one body and lead us to walk humbly on the earth, in justice and love, as witnesses of your resurrection.

In communion with Mary, whom you gave to us as our Mother at the foot of the cross, through you may all praise, honour and blessing be to the Father in the Holy Spirit and in the Church, Now and forever. AMEN.

OUR FAITH OUR FUTURE – Ossory Adult Faith Development

Would you like to engage with questions about our faith as we face a future together? Who better to have this conversation with than the younger members of our communities? Why not join us, then, on Thursday 17th November when 6 Senior Cycle Secondary Schools Students from our diocese will publicly discuss and engage in questions on the topic... "Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith and in purity" (1 Tim 12:4)

Young people in our Church: an example to believers... Venue: St Patrick's Parish Centre – 8pm

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCILS The Ossory Adult Faith Development is arranging a series of training evenings for those who are involved in, or hoping to establish, Parish Pastoral Councils in the diocese. The course will take place over three nights and the dates of these evenings are as follows:

Mullinavat: Monday 7th, 14th, 21st November from 8.00 p.m. - 9.00 p.m.

A NOVENA (9) MASSES are offered during the month of November for our relatives and friends whose names are on the November list for the dead. You may return the list with the November offerings or just place the list in the basket on the altar. If you have not received or miss-laid the paper circulated with November Envelopes then you may write the list on ordinary paper.

CHANGES IN RESPONSES AT MASS: Behold the Lamb of God ... Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof But only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The invitation to Communion begins with the priest taking the host and holding it raised above the paten or above the chalice. The new translation captures more the biblical wording of John 1:29 and Revelations 19:9: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb. The use of Blessed rather than Happy is a stronger reflection of its biblical root and highlights that there is significant difference between being "blessed" and being "happy".

The priest and people respond together: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. Again this translates fully the Latin text in the Missal, which is taken from the response of the Centurion to Jesus at Capernaum (Matthew 8:9), substituting "my soul" for "my servant". The response "under my roof" may be confusing when we first hear it but it makes more sense when we are aware of its biblical roots.

A SPECIAL MASS will be celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral, Kilkenny on Sunday 13th November at 3.00 p.m. to introduce the New Missal and present the Ossory Banner. Choirs are invited to attend from 1.00 p.m.
