A FIRST AID training course may be run locally by DUNNAMAGGIN HURLING Club, depending on numbers. As First-Aid is vital at all age groups in the clubs it is hoped that some parents, mentors, adult players, or members might volunteer to complete the course and assist at games and trainings. First Aid is something the club has to address as only a handful of people are qualified and expected to be at all games and trainings. It is also furthermore a relief for managers, selectors and players to know that First Aid help is on stand-by. Please contact Andrew O'Neill (087-9505173) for more information if interested.
